FROM THE DESK OF THE PARISH PRIEST

With Thanks and Appreciation

The priests of the Parish would like to extend our thanks to all our parishioners for your co-operation during the preparations for the Cardinal's Thanksgiving Solemn Mass. We know it has brought inconvenience to many of you and appreciate your patience during this period.

Our heartfelt thanks also goes out to all the volunteers who have given selflessly of their time and their services in one way or another to enable this event to proceed smoothly.

Most of all, we give thanks to God for this gift of a Cardinal from the local church. May we all continue to support our Cardinal as he carries out his new responsibilities and may our local Catholic community flourish and bring greater glory to God.
