Feast of The Presentation of the Lord

Mary and Joseph, obedient to Jewish law, participated in two rituals after Jesus' birth: Mary's purification and Jesus' dedication in the Temple. This event, the Presentation of the Lord, is celebrated 40 days after Christmas, demonstrating their faithful adherence to tradition

The Presentation of the Lord commemorates the Temple encounter between Simeon, Anna, and the infant Jesus. Simeon proclaimed Jesus as the world's Savior, foretelling the sorrow that would affect Mary. Anna shared her testimony, giving thanks and speaking about the child to those awaiting redemption.

Saint Joseph's presentation of Jesus in the Temple inspires us to become temples of the Lord ourselves. Reflect on your soul's need for purification and surrender to God. As Christ dwells within you, pray that His presence shines through, allowing others to encounter Him through you.

The Feast of the Presentation is also called "Candlemass" due to the tradition of lit candles, symbolizing Jesus as light to the world. It's also known as the "Feast of the Holy Encounter," marking the sacred meeting between Jesus, Simeon, and Anna in the Temple

Blessing of Candles

Blessing of candles will take place at the 11.30 am and 5.30 pm Masses.

The blessed candles can be collected after these two Masses. If you are unable to attend the Mass, then you can collect them from the Parish Office the following week.

Catholic News is available this weekend.

People enriching our parish history

Various people have enriched our parish history – missionaries, naturalist, benefactors, royalty, religious congregations, teachers, seminarians and politicians.

As early as 1846, Mgr Dominique Lefebvre, the Vicar Apostolate of Cochin China, passed through Singapore and donated some money towards the building of the Kranji chapel. In 1848, Mgr Emmanuel Verrolles, Vicar Apostolate of Manchuria, visited the chapel and wrote about the poor but admirable catechumens and the sick but zealous Fr Anatole Mauduit, our parish founder. On 8 May 1853, Mgr Jean Baptiste Boucho, Vicar Apostolate of Malaya, blessed the new church in Bukit Timah.

Famous naturalist Russel Wallace, who stayed with Fr Anatole Mauduit for several weeks in the 1850s, gave us a good account of the Chinese Catholics and their interactions with Fr Mauduit. The poor Chinese, who cultivated and sold vegetables, respected Fr Mauduit for leaving the comforts of home to spread the faith in a harsh and dangerous country. They trusted Fr Mauduit as a ‘true friend’ because he shared with them the little rice and money that he had. He also taught children catechism in his small school, discussed religion with his flock in the evenings, counselled those in distress and visited the sick.

In the 1860s, parish priest Fr Augustin Perie hosted three visits of important visitors, hence affirming the evangelical significance of the Bukit Timah church. The first visit in 1862 was a delegation of two bishops (from Pekin and Gadara), two provicars (from Cambodia and Singapore), eight missionaries, several Sisters of Charity, Fr Jean-Marie Beurel (head of Missions Étrangères de Paris in Singapore) and the British Constable of Bukit Timah. The second visit in 1863 was a gathering of important people from Town and Bukit Timah to a dinner on St Joseph’s Feast Day to raise funds for a new presbytery. Fr Perie raised $3000 to build his priest house with rooms for sleeping, dining, resting, catechism, the catechist and a school master. The third visit, in December 1869, was by Prince Alfred (Duke of Edinburgh and second son of Queen Victoria) and his contingent comprising the Governor and the colony’s top officials. Fr Perie wrote: “I welcomed him and gave him the assurance that the Queen, his mother, had no more loyal subjects than the Christians of Bukit Timah.”

The presbytery that Fr Perie had built in the 1860s became an interim home for new arrivals of the St Gabriel Brothers and the Franciscan Fathers through the generosity of Fr Joachim Teng (parish priest from 1949-1972). Fr Teng also made it a ‘Young Teachers Home’ for trainee teachers from Malaya who taught in seven schools in Singapore, including Boys’ Town English School. The trainees (some became school principals and one was Member of Parliament Lawrence Sia) were part of the parish community – exchanging ideas, shouldering hardships and sharing happiness. Fr Augustine Tay, parish priest between 1986-2002, also had invited overseas Chinese seminarians studying at the Punggol Seminary in the 1990s (including our Mgr Peter Zhang) to stay at the parish house during study breaks and join him for the Chinese New Year reunion dinner.

Politicians had also enriched our parish community. In 1957, Minister of Education Mr Chew Swee Kee officially opened the primary school convent. In 1964, Fr Teng worked alongside Singapore’s Prime Minister Mr Lee Kuan Yew and his Political Secretary Mr Lee Khoo Choy in the Bukit Panjang Goodwill Committee Fund Raising Event. In 1968, Minister for Social Affairs Enche Othman Wok opened the Girls’ Town of the Sisters of the Holy Infant Jesus in Chestnut Drive with Archbishop Michel Olcomendy. In 1996, Minister Without Portfolio Mr Lim Boon Heng graced the 150th Anniversary Exhibition of our parish with Archbishop Gregory Yong. On 8 September 2022, Prime Minister Mr Lee Hsien Loong, with his wife Mdm Ho Ching, attended the Archdiocesan Celebration of the Cardinalate Appointment of His Eminence Cardinal William Goh, who celebrated the Thanksgiving Solemn Mass at our church.

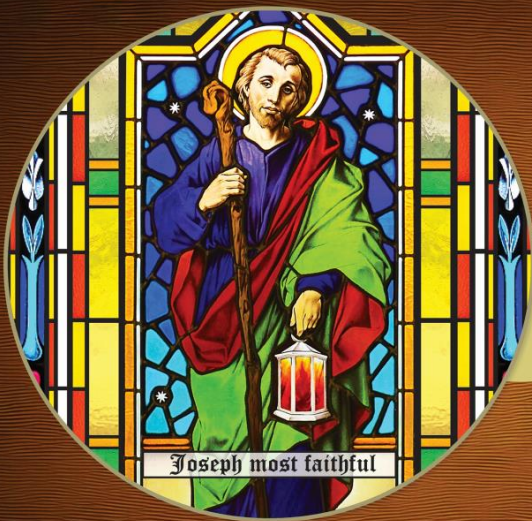

We also salute many other people who have enriched our parish history in various ways.

CATHOLIC LEADERSHIP CENTRE

Register at: www.catholicleader.sg

Effective leadership - whether on the job, in the community, at church or in the home - starts on the inside. Knowing who we are, and to whom we belong to. One deals with one's relationship to Christ. The other with one's life purpose.

A foundational module based on the servant leadership modelled by Jesus Christ, exploring the 4 domains of leading like Jesus: the heart, head, hands and habits.

This two-day workshop seminar introduces Safeguarding as Charism and Spirituality, starting with its theological and spiritual foundation. Abuse and all its forms will be defined. The dynamics of victimization and offending will also be explored. This workshop is highly recommended to all holding leadership positions in the Church.

As Pope Francis insists, “We are a sign that the ministry of safeguarding belongs to all of us as it is part of the Church's ministry, indeed of evangelization itself,” and without safe spaces and interior freedom from the heart, our Church will never be safe where the Gospel is freely proclaimed.

Marriage Preparation Courses

This course, spanning over 6 half-day sessions on weekends, is designed to help couples build strong foundation for a lasting fulfilling marriage.
